Today's speakers were the guests invited to breakfast by our members.

We had the pleasure of twelve guests, representing a wide variety of companies. It is great to see the interest in our organization and hopefully a few of those guests will continue the process by submitting an application for membership. Thank you to President Kevin for the idea and to the current members that made the invitations.

There was also a little time available for our EAGA members to introduce themselves, provide info about what their businesses are all about and let everyone know how long they (or their company) have been a member. We have a great group. A good mixture of old members, new members and new members representing old companies. We were also honored with the presence of a founding member, Chuck Lanier - still as shy and quiet as ever.

We all appreciate the very many positive comments from members. Obviously those in attendance felt that EAGA is a beneficial organization. There is a wealth of talent, knowledge and abilities within our group. Each one of our members can always count on the help of another member. Whenever you get a request for assistance or information from a friend, colleague, or family member, you are always able to respond with "I can certainly help. I know a guy..." Thank you again to the visiting company representatives, to the family members and business associates and friends that were in attendance as well, and particularly to our membership for their continued involvement in EAGA.

- ◆ Please take special note: Next week's meeting, September 23rd, all members should be present so that we can vote on ratification of the By-Laws. There must be at least two thirds of the active membership in attendance for the vote to be valid. Please plan accordingly so that you make the meeting and cast your vote. If you have questions about the By-Laws, or would like a copy, contact Mario or one of the Board members.
- ◆ Our EAGA Jim Fanning Memorial Trap Shoot will be on Friday, October 17th at the Albuquerque Trap Club. This is one of our budgeted events and the recent shotgun auction contributed additional funds for extras like gifts, prizes, and treats. We expect the event to be great, as usual. Ammunition will be provided. If you need a shotgun, some of our members have extras and will have loaners available. The event is only a couple of weeks away. Plan on spending some time enjoying the camaraderie of fellow EAGA members while shooting at flying objects. Sign up sheets will be available at the Tuesday breakfasts for another week or so. Directions to the facility and more details about the event will also be provided at upcoming meetings.
- ◆ The first in our series of company open house events will be right after breakfast next week, September 23rd. See page two of this bulletin for more information about the Maloy Mobile Storage visit.

Business Leads:

Garcia Kia is changing its name to Fiesta Kia. Sounds like there will be new ownership.

- Lionel Specter - Zeon Signs

Reciprocity:

Thank you to:

Bill Elliott and Tom Kirkpatrick - AAA Roofing

for several roof repairs and 2 new roofs on property that we rent.

Lionel Specter - Zeon Signs

For several sign repairs on an office building and shopping center that we manage.

- John Menicucci - Berger Briggs Real Estate

Next Tuesday will an Open House at Maloy Mobile Storage

Pat Maloy will host the event. Immediately after breakfast, we will gather at his place of business at 535 Comanche Rd NE - just west of I-25. Pat estimates the event will last for 45 minutes to an hour. We all know that Pat rents and sells portable storage containers, but were you aware that his company also has large storage trailers; or that they can turn one of the containers into an office area; or even a home? Might not be so portable when done, but I'll bet that the home is quite sturdy and durable. Come to Maloy Mobile Storage for the Open House. Pat promises that you will be amazed at what his staff can do and at the wide variety of products and services that they provide.

There will be another open house event in each of the next 3 months. Stay tuned for details.
