There was not a meeting today because of the Thanksgiving Holiday

The Thanksgiving holiday is usually a time when we take a minute to review the various things for which we are thankful. Most common thoughts are directed to family members; material items; and beneficial opportunities that exist in our personal world. But, no matter the current circumstance, or the future expectations, we should not forget the past. Don't remember just to dwell on the old wishes; or the 'what might have been'; or the maybe should have---or should not have; but just to know that the history is there. None of us would be who we are; where we are; or what we will be; without the encounters and experiences (good and bad) from our past. What we did and who we were lead to who we are. If we have a fair amount of current things to be thankful for, that is good. If not, then possibly look to see what can change now so that the trip to the future results in more meaningful and satisfactory feelings. Hopefully you all had a good Thanksgiving week and were able to find many things for which to be thankful. Our EAGA family is thankful for its encounter with you. See you Tuesday!

- ◆ Our December 5th meeting has been reserved for important EAGA business discussions. We will hold elections for new Directors and we will have a vote to ratify changes to our By-Laws. That meeting will be for members only, so will be closed to guests. Please make sure that you attend on December 5th, and that you get there on time (by 7:00 am).
- ◆ Our Holiday Party is scheduled for December 9th at Hotel Albuquerque. Cocktails from 6 to 7 PM; Dinner from 7 to 8 PM; then 8 to 11 PM dancing and door prizes. The event is free for EAGA members and their spouse/significant other. You should plan to attend. Mario has been selecting some great items to give away at the party, and our holiday party is always an enjoyable event. Guests are also welcome. If you want to reward a good employee, impress a colleague, or just bring a friend or two, make sure that you add their names to the list at our next meeting. Cost is only $25 per guest. Sign up sheets will be available at the November 28th breakfast meeting; and possibly the December 5th meeting.
